

VIRGINIA AUTOMOTIVE RECYCLERS ASSOCIATION

250 West Main Street, Suite 100, Charlottesville, Virginia 22902 • 434.977.3716 • 434.979.2439(f) • easter@easterassociates.com

How You Can Benefit by Joining VARA

- ◇ Legislative and regulatory representation before the General Assembly and relevant state agencies
- ◇ Training and certification seminars including forklift, air bag and refrigerant
- ◇ Newsletters and information updates from federal and state regulatory agencies
- ◇ Scholarship Program (application deadline)
- ◇ Annual Meeting to Share Ideas and Business Practices
- ◇ Proactive Response to DMV and DEQ Enforcement and Environmental Issues
- ◇ Access between Suppliers and Members for Trade Shows and Business Opportunities

Membership Application

Company Name: _____

Company Representative : _____

Title: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Street Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: _____ Fax: _____

E-mail Address: _____ Website: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Membership Classifications

Regular Membership (licensed as a salvage dealer by the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles)

___ Companies with fewer than 5 full-time employees as of January 1, 2011: $300/year

___ Companies with 5 or more full-time employees as of January 1, 2011: $450/year

Associate Membership (businesses that serve the salvage industry)

$350/year

Please make checks payable to VARA, 250 West Main St, Suite 100, Charlottesville, VA 22902.

Because the association will spend a portion of its yearly budget on lobbying, 76% of your dues can be deducted as an ordinary business expense. Contributions/gifts to VARA are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.